Irene Rodrigues

Parent of Anecia Rodrigues,
B.Sc. Culinary Arts student

"Food is created with love and passion. It is not just an art but a science that demands patience and precision, and a culinary career truly thrives on passion and dedication. My daughter, Anecia Rodrigues, currently studying at VMSIIHE, has always been fond of cooking and aspired to pursue a career in the culinary world.

However, passion alone does not make a great Chef, the right culinary education and guidance are essential. At VMSIIHE, I have seen my daughter learn, grow, and gain real industry exposure with patience, hard work, curiosity, and a positive attitude.

The institute stands out for its discipline, international standards of teaching, and experienced chefs and faculty who impart knowledge with excellence. I am glad to have enrolled my daughter in this National Award-winning hospitality institute, and I truly appreciate the continuous support and mentorship of Prof. Irfan Mirza, Director & Principal VMSIIHE, which has shaped her culinary journey.

As Thomas Keller says, "A recipe has no soul. You, as the cook, must bring soul to the recipe." This is a philosophy the institute embodies everyday."
